Diggers In Center Of City

A steam shovel started digging through the heart of Sierra Madre this week in the final stages of construction work on the Baldwin Ave. storm drain. After the ditch is dug, Sierra Madre Blvd. will be bridged to permit two-way traffic at all times. Following excavation, the bottom of the ditch must be cleaned, forms installed and concrete poured. This operation—from digging to curing the concrete—takes about one month.

THUS Sierra Madre Blvd. will not be repaved until about the end of September. Coming south on Baldwin, digging has progressed to Grand View and workers are now pouring concrete in this section. It will take approximately a week for the ditch to be dug from Sierra Madre Blvd. north to Grand View.

Under the construction schedule of the E. A. Irish Co., the drain is supposed to be completely backfilled with dirt by Nov. 1. The entire job should be completed by Jan. 1.

MUCH OF the section from Foothill Blvd. to Lowell Ave. has been filled. City Administrator Lawrence Bevington said the contractor is working "just about on schedule."

The entire project from Foothill to the top of Baldwin will cost $1,063,910. Work of the Irish Co. is being supervised by the Army Corps of Engineers.

THREE SIDEWALK superintendents gaze in admiration at the steam shovel and other digging equipment that moved into the heart of Sierra Madre this week. Sierra Madre Blvd. will be bridged to permit two-way traffic at all times, but the street isn't expected to be filled in until about the latter part of September. Work on the storm drain will continue north until the ditches join at Grand View. Shown in the photo are Jay Elwood and Laneta and Tommie Gentry.

Police Get Convictions In Green Car Case

Judge Finds Two Guilty Despite Plea

The Police Department has obtained two convictions in traffic cases this week and in both instances the defendants entered pleas of not guilty on the basis that they had been arrested by patrolmen in green cars.

Patrick M. Pettay, 45, bartender at the Club 60, was convicted on a drunk driving charge by Judge Donald Wright in Pasadena Municipal Court. He was fined $150.

Pettay retained Jack Tenney as his attorney and entered a not guilty plea on grounds that the arresting officers were incompetent witnesses since they were driving green cars rather than black and white, as specified in the State Vehicle Code.

TENNEY, former state senator, is the attorney who represented Lowell Francis Hendershott in a speeding case before Judge Joseph Sprankle. Hendershott, local service station owner, was acquitted. Also found guilty by Judge Wright was Theodore R. Robertson, of South Pasadena, a student at the University of Southern California.

He was arrested Aug. 1 and charged with going 45 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone on Sierra Madre Blvd. He also argued that the police were incompetent witnesses because of the color of their cars. Robertson was fined $37.

MEANWHILE, Police Chief Gordon McMillan obtained an opinion from T. Guy Cornyn, city attorney.

Mr. Cornyn said that the law governing black and white cars does not apply to cities since the State Department of Motor Vehicles has no supervisory power over city police officers and cannot constitutionally delegate such power to the state.

"Consequently," he said, "a police officer of a city whose duties are general and not limited to patrolling the streets, and who at the time of the arrest is driving an automobile painted in a different color than that prescribed by the Division of Motor Vehicles, is a competent witness."

POLICE also this week arrested two teenagers for the possession of alcoholic beverages.

The boys arrested are Eduardo Bohorquez, 18, of 1785 Monte Vista, and Manuel A. Torres, 18, of 3218 E. Walnut, both of Pasadena.

They were picked up at 3:05 a.m. last Saturday. Police confiscated a quart of vodka and a quart of beer.

Gordon Young Car Wash Nets $260 for Hospital

The City of Hope received more than $260 yesterday as the result of a teen-age car wash project held to raise money to fight leukemia.

The project was planned as a memorial to Gordon Young, 15, of 530 W. Laurel, Sierra Madre, a Marshall Junior High student who died two weeks ago of leukemia.

Fifty Marshall students operated car wash stands at two Hastings Ranch service stations—985 N. Michillinda and at Colorado and Rosemead—for 12 hours to collect funds.

Larry Boskovich, 17, of 711 W. Montecito, Sierra Madre, one of the bosses of the car wash enterprise, said that about $150 was collected from "the hard work of the kids," who labored in three-hour shifts, giving wash jobs for $1 each.

The remaining money came in contributions. Some of the other teenagers who participated are Lillian Guttman, Nino Leonardi, Dennis DeCicco, B. J. Cole, Toddy Draeger, Gary Boskovich and Mil Heim.

REV. LEROY HUX, new minister of the Sierra Madre Baptist Church, will preach his first sermon here Sunday morning and evening, Aug. 25. Rev. Hux, his wife and two children will live in Sierra Madre as soon as they can locate a house. Rev. William O'Dell, former pastor, is returning to Fuller Theological Seminary.

Police Arrest 4 on Charge Of Gambling

Three Sierra Madreans and the owner of a Pasadena restaurant were arrested here on gambling charges at 3:15 a.m. last Sunday.

They are Kenneth R. Moore, 24; John A. Skudlarek, 28, and John G. Pierson, 26, all of 655 Brookside Lane, and James S. Nardini, 43, of 529 El Centro, South Pasadena, owner of the Piccolo Steak House on Foothill Blvd.

The four pleaded guilty yesterday before Judge Richard C. Fildew in Pasadena Municipal Court and were fined $25 each.

Police were called to investigate what was described as a disturbance at 655 Brookside Lane. Officers Keith Bassett and Ira Alcon looked through a window and saw the four throwing dice and making bets of $200 to $300.

Other guests were also in the house, some of them playing cards, police said.

The police officers entered the house after observing through the window for about 10 minutes, confiscated the dice and arrested the four men on gambling charges. They were released on bail of $100.

Composer to Lead Band Here Friday

Louis Palange, Hollywood composer, will appear as guest conductor at the band concert in Sierra Madre Park tomorrow at 8 p.m.

An accomplished musician, Mr. Palange has experience in the fields of radio, motion pictures, recordings and on the concert stage. Currently he conducts his own concert band and symphony orchestra.

He will direct the Sierra Madre Band in his own compositions.

Works on the portion of the program to be conducted by Walter Laursen will include "National Emblem March," the "Grand March from Aida," "Toccata for Band," "Under the Double Eagle," "The Man I Love," by Gershwin, and other selections.

Historical Society Meets November 4

The annual dinner meeting of the Sierra Madre Historical Society will be held Monday evening, Nov. 4, at the Woman's Clubhouse. It was decided at the group's Executive Board session on Aug. 14.

Further details, including the type of program, will be announced later, according to Mrs. H. Randolph Wood, president.

Mrs. Wood pointed out that during each of the recent years a definite project has been carried out by the society. The project this year—1957-58—is the "collection of accurate biographical data for the archives" of the society.

This material is to include not only the past history of individuals, institutions, businesses, service clubs, social groups and cultural events and activities, but also those that are current which show the present progress of Sierra Madre in every line of activity.

The Historical Society, which has been growing steadily, currently has 170 members. Members and non-members are permitted to bring guests to the annual dinner meeting and program so long as space is available.

Boy, 13, Hurt In Cliff Fall

A mountain climbing expedition ended in tragedy for Richard Wade, 13, of 1013 Green St., Torrance, Sunday afternoon.

Richard and a group of friends were having an outing at Chantry Flats, when he and Tommie Queen, also 13, of El Monte, decided to climb the hills. While attempting to climb a sheer cliff in the San Olen Canyon, Richard fell 60 feet, striking his head on the canyon floor. He was unconscious and bleeding badly.

Tommie ran to the Ranger Station for help. Ranger Ralph Shangraw was there and after placing a call for the Rescue Crew Shangraw and four members of the Fire Suppression Crew rushed to the scene. They gave the boy emergency first aid until the Rescue Team arrived.

Richard was carried to Chantry Flats by litter and sent to the Rancho Del Medical Center, and then transferred to the Monrovia Hospital for a blood transfusion and further examination.

He suffered a possible skull fracture, brain concussion, lacerations of the left arm and knee and possible internal injuries.

Participating in the rescue were Howard Miller, Robert La Lone, Joe Murphy, Bill Wark, Hubert Herriek, Bill Adams and Charles Radon, all of the Rescue Crew.

Representing the Forest Service were Ralph Shangraw, Dale "Smoky" Veetch, Chuck Houtsom, Bob Hamm and Jack McGough.

Dove Disease Spotted In Sierra Madre

A disease that literally causes wild pigeons and doves to starve to death has been spotted in Sierra Madre, the State Department of Fish and Game reported yesterday.

Dead pigeons and doves were first seen here in the yard of Nina B. Neale, 218 N. Mountain Trail. She informed the Police Department which referred her to state authorities.

The disease, which is prevalent throughout the metropolitan area of Los Angeles County, is called trichomoniasis, according to John Laughlin, game management supervisor for Southern California.

IT CAUSES the formation of a deposit in the birds' throats which prevents them from swallowing. Consequently, they starve to death. The disease can be treated, however, by feeding the birds grain treated with the Sierra Madre's most scholarly canine is missing.

Craig, a sausage-shaped brown pooch with a diploma from the Church of the Ascension School, wandered away in a most uneducated fashion from the home of his owner, Mrs. Helen Perrin, 678 Alta Vista Dr.

The dog acquired his bachelor's degree by accompanying Mrs. Perrin's daughter, Laurie, to school almost every day for five years. He even went to classes alone when his mistress was unable to attend.

If you spot Craig, either reading a book or occupied in more doggy pursuits, please call ELgin 5-3838 or ELgin 5-3996.

Report Pet Bites at Once, County Asks

Dr. Roy O. Gilbert, Los Angeles County health officer, this week issued a warning that rabies is still endemic in Los Angeles County.

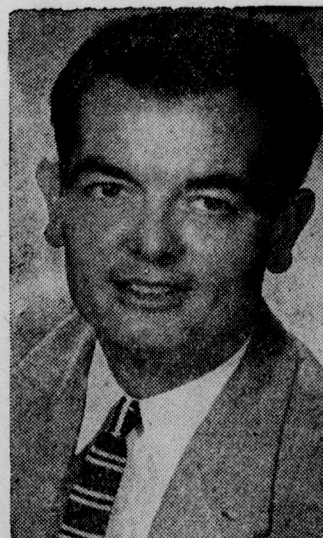

So far this year there have been reported 21 cases of animal rabies—19 dogs, one cat and one skunk. Because of contacts with these and other suspected rabid animals 185 persons have had to undergo the painful Pasteur treatment.

Dr. Gilbert issued a special plea that all animal bites be reported immediately to the nearest county health center. Compliance with the rabies vaccination programs will not necessarily stop rabies immediately, as the vaccination program is a long-range one, whereas the rabies problem and danger of human infection is one with us now.

Failure to immediately report an animal bite could result in additional bites or infection by the offending animal, or even in the loss of human life. It is a California State Law that anyone knowing of an animal bite is responsible for its being reported, Dr. Gilbert said.

The full cooperation of all residents is requested in that all animal bites be reported to the Monrovia Health Center, 330 W. Maple, or to Dr. Burski, district health officer, and complete information be given—as to the patient and the animal concerned. The animal will then be closely observed during the critical days as a protection to the person bitten.

It is also requested that pets be kept on leashes or inside a fenced yard at all times.

Lorne Pratt

his home here at 677 Canyon Crest Dr. and move to Hesperia with his wife, Virginia, and 14-year-old daughter, Judy.

His four-year term on the City Council would have expired in April. The Council may either appoint a new member within a short time to fill Mr. Pratt's term or schedule a special election. The former alternative is the most likely.

The former owner of two grocery stores in Sierra Madre, Mr. Pratt has been in public relations work for many years. He has his own firm in Hollywood, Lorne Pratt & Associates, and will continue to do civic work for the Hollywood studios.

Civic Group Plans To Publish Local Events Calendar

The Sierra Madre Coordinating Council plans to compile a weekly calendar of events which will be published regularly in the Sierra Madre News, it was announced yesterday.

Mrs. John Crehan, chairman, urged all organizations to cooperate by sending in dates for meetings, nights, social events and other functions, and to consult the calendar to prevent conflicts.

Organizations may contact Mrs. Crehan at 45 E. Mira Monte, ELgin 5-7937.

Lorne Pratt Resigns From City Council

Lorne Pratt, city councilman here for three and one-half years, has resigned, effective at the date of the next Council meeting Aug. 27.

Mr. Pratt recently was appointed managing director of Hesperia Inn, million-dollar hotel and recreation area developed by M. Penn Phillips in the Apple Valley, 84 miles from Sierra Madre.

He told The Sierra Madre News that he plans to sell

Outline New Driving Laws For Teens

Teenage drivers are affected vitally by a series of new laws which go into effect Sept. 11.

Major changes made by the Legislature at its 1957 regular session in statutes involving the driving privilege of young people were listed today by State Motor Vehicles Director Paul Mason:

1. A driver accompanying or supervising the driving of the holder of an instruction permit must be 18 years old or over.

"THERE has long been a problem in traffic enforcement and accident investigation work," Mason said, "in that the driver accompanying the holder of an instruction permit merely had to be licensed. This often resulted in 16-year-olds 'teaching' other 16-year-olds to drive."

"After Sept. 11, an accompanying driver not only must have a valid operator's license, but must be at least 18 years of age."

2. The junior license as Californians have known it based on residence will no longer be issued.

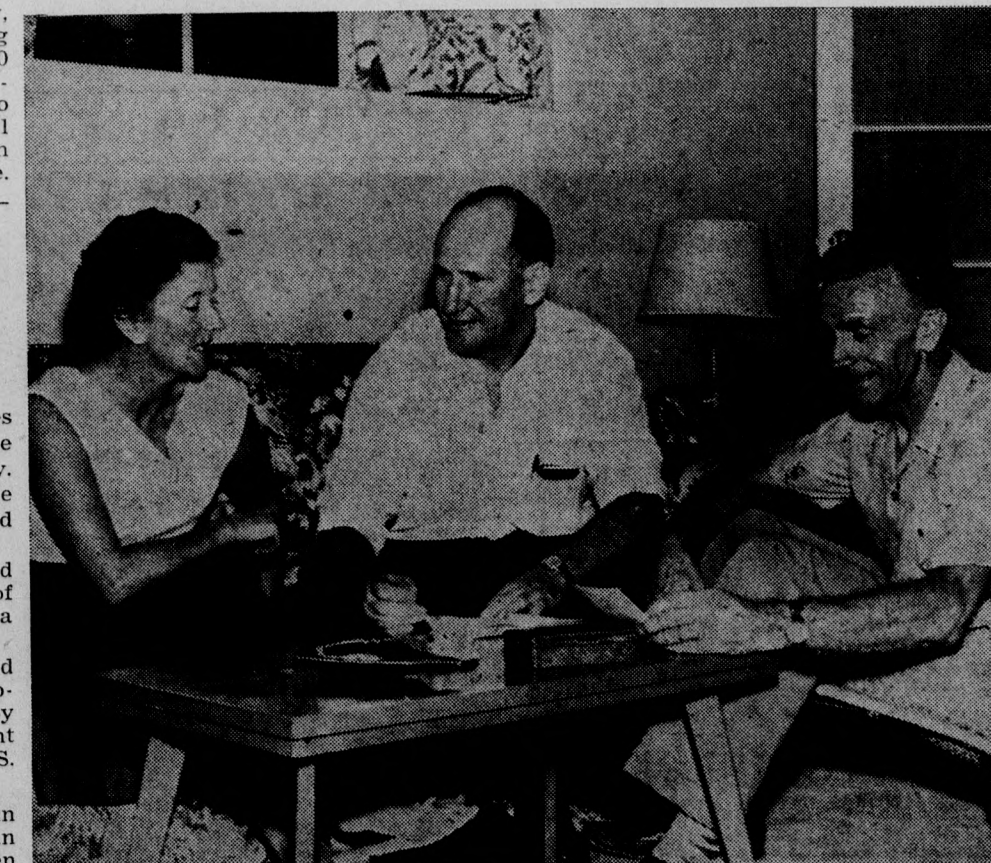

"After Sept. 11," Mason explained, "junior permits may be issued for limited periods, and in no event beyond age 16, to qualified boys and girls who require limited driving privilege for school transportation, family illness or for economic reasons. Eligibility for these reasons must be established by statements filed with the Department of Motor Vehicles."

3. Young people 15½ years old who have successfully completed in California a secondary school course in behind-the-wheel driver training may be issued a regular operator's license.

"BUT the minimum age for those who have not completed such training is 16 years," the DMV director reminded. "When a holder of a junior permit reaches 16 years of age, he must apply for a regular operator's license."

Formerly, the law permitted the issuance by DMV of "junior operator licenses" to rural area boys and girls be-

Tennis Club Sets Tourney For Sept. 1

The Sierra Madre Tennis Club is sponsoring a doubles tournament Sept. 1 in the local courts.

Entries must be turned in to Mrs. William Owen, chairman of the Tournament Committee, 20 W. Mira Monte, by Aug. 29. The entry fees are 75 cents for club members and $1.50 for non-members. The tournament will start at 9 a.m. and the finals probably will be played that same day. Refreshments will be served free of charge.

Members of the Tournament Committee, in addition to Mrs. Owen, are Wayne Perry, Marcus Woodward and Harry Elwood.

Litter Campaign Effective

It is pleasant to report that Californians are busily breaking down the supposition that Americans are born careless and rapidly become addicted to messing up their streets, highways, parks and other public places with an assortment of cast-off trash.

They are so doing in the course of the campaign now being waged against the so-called litterbug, the unthinking and offensive motorist or picnicker who scatters his wrappings, containers and other debris over roadways, beaches, and wherever else in the public domain he chances to be.

Concerted and well-directed action by public and private agencies is effectively educating the public to the evils of such carelessness and has already vastly improved the appearance and general attractiveness of the State's recreation areas and thoroughfares.

The campaign has taken many forms. Anti-litterbug laws impose a maximum penalty of $500 fine and six months' jail upon trash strewers. The Division of Highways, which is compelled to spend $700,000 a year to clean up behind them, makes this known through signs posted at well-selected points. The Division has likewise installed trash cans throughout the highway system.

Oil companies are offering reconditioned drums to counties wishing to follow suit. Service stations are making trash bags available. The State Chamber of Commerce, the PTA, and numerous civic and commercial organizations are putting time and money into the battle.

Prominent among these is the California Brewers Assn., which is now adding 50 billboards to the educational campaign which the State's newspapers have been waging so profitably.

Results to date have been gratifying enough to put a broad grin on the face of Parky, the tidy-up kangaroo, who has been adopted as the symbol of this outdoor house-keeping program. The battle has not been won, of course, but its progress warrants optimism.

It can no longer be argued that litterbugs are incurable. It is plain that 99 and 44/100 per cent of them prefer cleanliness to messy disorder and have no intent to contribute to the expense, danger and displeasure that littered highways and recreation areas produce. But they need reminding, and that is an enduring job.

Watch on the Potomac

By Robert G. Spivack

HOW BAD ARE OUR ROADS?—The American Automobile Association has come up with a generally favorable progress report on the status of the huge federal road-building program authorized by Congress in 1956. But its report also warns of possible trouble ahead which may delay completion of the program on schedule.

What bothers the AAA is that several state legislatures have failed to provide for adequate highway revenues and pass other needed bills. This worries highway officials in Washington, the AAA says, because "state co-operation is the key to the vast program . . ."

To those who are traveling over the highways this summer some of the difficulties are apparent. Cars around the big cities proceed at a snail's pace, bumper-to-bumper, if you should happen to be driving through around 5 p.m. or in the early morning. The need for big city by-passes has long been with us. Their absence is a constant source of irritation to motorists traveling by car on vacations that are limited in time.

THE AAA reports some other headaches. Many are strictly financial.

There is great pressure on Congress and the Administration to increase the mileage of the 41,000-mile interstate highway and defense system, since the federal government pays 90 per cent of the cost. It's not surprising that the states want the most highway for the least outlay of their own funds.

But the states are asking for too much, the AAA argues. They want 12,000 miles more of federal highway than now planned. This could upset present financial plans. It might delay the program.

The price tag authorized by Congress was $23,500,000,000. Our "creeping inflation" might send this figure higher, the AAA warns, because road construction costs are going up. This probably will be a $30 billion program before the job is done.

Still Work to Be Done!

Lee Shippey asks
What Do You Think?

I think most of us were much surprised to learn, from last week's News, that the Bethany home for girls has been operating here, despite the fact that it has no license. That seems pretty good evidence that it hasn't been anything like a nuisance.

We are assured that the girls there are from broken homes and have no records as delinquents. If that is the case, why not give them the chance every youngster deserves?

Children so unfortunate as to come from broken homes have one strike against them. It wouldn't take much to make them feel the world was against them, and they might as well be against the world.

Of course, there are laws governing institutions which must be regarded. But it seems an inhuman thing to deprive youngsters who are behaving as well as any of us and better than some of us of a chance to develop amid helpful surroundings.

MRS. MAY WRIGHT—may her recovery be swift—is resting in our home town hospital, just across the street from the Congregational Church, but still has her sense of humor. Other day she told a visitor that she enjoyed the chimes from the church but, considering its location, thought it might be less fond of playing "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

MRS. WRIGHT, by the way, long has been a mighty good citizen of Sierra Madre, giving generously of her time and means in aid of civic and humanitarian welfare. I doubt that she has ever shirked anything she felt to be her duty as a citizen or as a Christian, and there are not many persons of whom that can be said. If all of us had as high a sense of civic responsibility this would be an even more heavenly town than it is.

LOOKING back over our 30 years in Sierra Madre, I am inclined to wonder if C. W. Jones isn't the only other citizen who has shown as high a devotion to civic duties as Mrs. Wright has. Mr. Jones was our town's first mayor and ever since has been earnestly concerned with its welfare, meaning the welfare of all of us. He has been a member of the Red Cross Board for well over 40 years. He has been the guiding spirit of the Historical Society and has taken helpful interest in practically everything which seemed good for all of us. What a wonderful satisfaction it must be to anyone to be able to look back over half a century or more and feel that he never shirked a duty to his fellow citizens.

I have never lived anywhere else where such a high proportion of the citizens had a sense of dedication. It would fill a page to mention all of them, and I have taken too slim a part even to know who deserves highest praise in many cases.

But a grand group of persons has labored hard and unselfishly in the Historical Society, the Library, the schools, the Arts Guild which flourished for years and other civic organizations without which our town could not be the place it is.

I can't remember a time when Martha Pritchard, Webster Vannier, Maybelle Barker, Lalla Fagge, Janet Wood, Convers Twycross, Marvin Weese and the Deweys weren't doing something which needed doing here.

I can't ever forget some of those who are gone. And I am glad such a fine crop of younger leaders now has taken hold. Natural setting helps and climate helps, but it takes people with hearts and souls to make a town.

Trip Through Sicily Provides Interest—Aching Back

By Edward Lloyd Voorhees

After four hours and 121 miles, the roughest train ride of my life—in a crowded coach over a disjointed and meandering track—finally came to an end when our train from Palermo pulled into the station at Trapani at the northwest tip of Sicily.

Aside from the discomfort of the hardwood seats, the rolling winecasks under them, and the jostling of passengers getting in and out, the trip had provided as much interest as it had perpetual motion. The stone villages along the sea, the fishing boats, the fishermen caring for their long black nets, and the almost windowless, fortress-like farm houses are all of the earthy, far from anything usually called "progress."

THE NAMES above the stations had been strange, musical, and marked the region where Garibaldi's famous "Thousand" recruited its strength for his revolution against the Papacy and the Bourbons in 1860, after his landing at nearby Marsala, which is also famous for its sweet wine of that name.

We had also glimpsed the 2000-year-old Greek temple of Segeste, its golden sandstone massive and solitary on a distant hill. And after that came Castelvetro, a thriving modern city, junction point for Sellunite, the vast and deserted ruins of an ancient metropolis sacked and destroyed by Hannibal 400 years B.C., which I was later to visit with Sicilian friends.

Trapani, the "City of the Four Winds," stands on a long, narrow peninsula like a sickle (whose low beaches provide the shallow lagoons for gathering sail, its chief industry for centuries).

THE AIR was sunny but cold that late February day of 1956. My south front room at the new Hotel Russo (chosen from my CIT printed list) was warm as well as clean, with plumbing that worked (a recent achievement in many Italian hotels), and a miracle bed, which I found that night could be lengthened by merely pressing the feet against the footboard!

The biggest problem, really, is what hat and shoes to wear with the suit I'm traveling in. It's a Dior suit, stunning, the new shoulder line—where was I? Oh yes, the hat. Well, the black hat with the veil is more devastating, but the blue shoes are more comfortable. Maybe it depends on whom is to be devastated. Black, blue? Blue, black? Enny meeny . . .

Dear Mr. Elwood: I want to thank you for all your past kindnesses; bringing me iced tea when I'm working overtime on the lousy story you gave me at quarter of five; usually having a match when I need one. And paying regularly.

But I am NOT going to write a column this week. I'm sensitive, too.

Scrap Develops Over Funds For Projects in Israel

By Edgar W. Hiestand, Rep. 21st District

Economy spirit has waned considerably during the closing days of Congress. Last week it all but vanished as the House passed one of the final appropriation bills, a $1.5 billion supplemental measure, almost all of which was for the Department of Defense.

It didn't pass without a scrap, but the scrap developed surprisingly over an item that accounted for less than one per cent of the appropriation—or just $3,525,000. This was for buying Israeli pounds now in the U.S. Treasury, and spending them for educational, scientific and cultural activities in Israel.

The United States has the $3,525,000 in pounds in the Treasury as a result of subsidies given certain American booksellers and magazine publishers who sold their material to importers in Israel. The bill would substitute American money for the Israeli money, and then would use the latter on some 42 projects in Israel.

PROPOSERS of the measure insisted it would cost American taxpayers nothing inasmuch as the money now exists in the Treasury, albeit in Israeli pounds. Opponents argued that money is money, no matter what form it's in, and that this happens to belong to the American people.

Projects in Israel, of course, sounded extremely worthwhile. A few examples: chairs in Israel universities, $222,222; construction of a museum, $833,333; water desalting research, $111,111; construction of a YMCA, $27,778; an elementary school system, $216,667; support of a choir assembly, $8,333; Israel Boy Scouts, $5,556; erection of an American law library, $27,778.

It was pointed out, however, that the federal government does not generally give financial support to similar projects within the borders of the United States, and that no matter how worthy the projects in Israel, they should be financed other than by American taxpayers.

This argument didn't work. Backers insisted that the projects would, on the other hand, build "good will" for the United States. They also implied that anyone who dared vote against them was his ship come in—twice!

Ulysses K had adopted America with the fervor of a lover of liberty.

And one of the big dreams of his life was a trip back to his native Greece to tell his friends of the wonders of this country.

Like more than 40,000,000 other Americans he saved for his goal through U. S. Savings Bonds.

When he had enough, he arranged his passage to Greece and set off for a New York bank to cash his Bonds.

He arrived but the Bonds didn't.

Somewhere on the way, he'd lost them and to further complicate matters, his ship sailed in 72 hours.

He told this story to a bank official who got in touch with the Treasury Department.

Records were checked and Ulysses received his money in time to sail on schedule.

This true story illustrates the indestructibility of U. S. Savings Bonds. Any of your Bonds that are lost, stolen or destroyed will be replaced without charge by the U. S. Treasury. That's why Bonds are said to be "safer than cash."

And now "safer than cash" Savings Bonds are better than ever. Every Series E Savings Bond purchased since February 1, 1957, pays 3-3/4% interest when held to maturity. It pays higher interest, too, in earlier years and matures in only 8 years and 11 months.

Now more than ever it's smart to save with guaranteed-safe U. S. Savings Bonds. Buy them where you bank or through the Payroll Savings Plan at work.

Part of every American's savings belongs in U. S. Savings Bonds

Wenzel Nuptials August 17

Sharon Wenzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wenzel of LaSalle, Ill., became the bride of James J. Zwick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Zwick, also of LaSalle, at St. Rita's Catholic Church 8 a.m. mass Aug. 17.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white waltz-length tulle over taffeta gown. Alencon lace edged the scoop neckline and was used in delicate tracery over the full bouffant skirt. Her waist-length veil was caught by a crown of sequins and pearls. Her bouquet was a white orchid encircled by white carnations and stephanotis.

The mother of the bride was attired in a summer sheer powder blue dress with navy accessories and a white carnation corsage.

A luncheon for the wedding party and immediate families was served at Eaton's Santa Anita Inn.

When the couple left for a two-week honeymoon in San Francisco, the bride wore a white linen sheath and short jacket with patent leather accessories.

The newly married couple will live at 255 S. Madison, Pasadena.

The bride formerly made her home with her aunt and uncle, the Herman Heitmans 187 San Gabriel Ct.

Mrs. Joseph Charles Capps Jr.

Shirley Louise Morningstar Weds Joseph Charles Capps Jr. Aug. 17

By Marjorie Thomas

White stock and gladioli were used in the floral decorations at St. Rita's Catholic Church when Shirley Louise Morningstar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Charles Morningstar, 91 W. Grandview, exchanged nuptial vows with Joseph Charles Capps Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Christian Capps of Arcadia, Aug. 17. Rev. Thomas O'Malley read the service.

The bride, escorted down the aisle by her father, chose a white gown of sheer embroidered nylon. The long sleeved bodice had a Queen Anne collar and the full bouffant skirt fell into a chapel train. A bonnet of tulle ruffles, enhanced with seed pearls, held the finger-tip French illusion veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

THE MATRON of honor, Mrs. Patricia Ziglinski, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Francine Franco and Mrs. Nora Kemstedt, wore printed silk waltz-length frocks in varying hues of blue, turquoise and lilacs, accented by matching cummerbunds and white lace picture hats. Their bouquets of summer flowers blended with colors in their dresses.

Robert Carlos Jr. was best man and the guests were seated by William Koehmstedt and Robert Harter.

Marianne Marshall, flower girl, wore a floor-length pale blue organza dress with a turquoise cummerbund. Christopher Ruggles was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride was attired in a princess style aqua brocaded taffeta with a back detail of chiffon drapes. She wore a white picture hat and a white orchid corsage.

The groom is a graduate of St. Andrew's High School and Mount St. Mary's College.

Following a honeymoon in the Hawaiian Islands, the couple will make their home in Pasadena.

Out-of-town guests include Ralph, Loretta and Clara Quaranta of New York, Mrs. Agness Barrenger of Burlingame, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly of Hillsborough, Calif.

Nelle Vieira To Visit Daughter, Attend Conference

Mrs. Nelle Vieira, 487 Woodland Dr., is leaving Sunday evening for Saratoga, Calif., where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Glen Dennee, for a few days.

Later she plans to go to Mt. Hermon in the Santa Cruz Mountains to attend a college conference where she will be counselor to about 20 girls.

She will return the second week in September to resume her work as music director in the Baptist Church here.

Sharron Rickman Visits Hawaii

Sharron Rickman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rickman, 659 W. Alegria, will return next Monday from a two-week holiday in the Hawaiian Islands.

Sharron, a member of Bethany Church, is one of 700 from California and Oregon who participated in the Christian Conference Cruise.

The group made the trip by air. Headquarters has been in Honolulu but tours have been made to the other Islands. They will return on the S.S. Lurline.

Harter WCTU Meets August 29

The regular meeting of Harter WCTU will be held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Hall, 611 W. Grandview, at 4 p.m. Aug. 29.

The families of the members are invited to the 6 p.m. picnic supper. Any member not assigned a supper item is asked to bring her choice of something suitable. Those planning to attend the affair are reminded to bring their own table service.

Dr. H. A. Poehler Visits Francos

Dr. Horst A. Poehler of Pleasantville, N. Y., enjoyed a three-day visit with Mr. and Mrs. Franklin A. Franco, 409 N. Mt. Trail.

Dr. Poehler, Mrs. Franco's nephew, is senior staff engineer for General Precision Equipment Co. of New York and was in Southern California on business.

Returns Home After Surgery

Mrs. Thelma Gruber, 286 Old Ranch Rd., is recovering in Monrovia Hospital from a major operation performed Aug. 16. She is reportedly in good condition and will be home Friday, Aug. 23.

The Kulinary Kettle ...

Dill Weed Adds Piquancy To Greek-Style Stew

By Toni Maurin
SY 7-9634

The Greeks had a word for it, and I'm sure that we'll be able to do just as well after sampling some of Mrs. Joseph (Mary) Palmer's tasty dishes.

She gave me her recipe for that wonderful creamy soup and the only fault that I can find with the recipe is that she made the proportions much too small.

SOUPA AVGHOLEMONO
1 quart of chicken broth
2 eggs
1/3 cup rice
Juice of 1/2 lemon
Salt and pepper to taste

Bring chick broth to a boil and add rice. Cook until rice is soft. Beat eggs until frothy with lemon juice. Add one cup of soup to egg mixture, stirring constantly. Then add egg mixture back to soup and serve immediately. This amount will serve four people.

Her next recipe is a meal in a dish and finds its piquancy in the addition of herbs.

GOLAGHET STEW
1 pound ground round
1 clove garlic, minced
1/2 cup water

About 1 tsp. of dill weed (Potatoes are optional)
1 large chopped onion
1 pkg. frozen string beans
1 oz. can tomato sauce
About 1/2 tsp. oregano
Salt and pepper to taste

Brown ground meat with chopped onion and garlic in a little butter. When browned, add string beans, water, tomato sauce and herbs and simmer until beans are done. Potatoes, cut small, may be added at the same time as green beans, in which case, slightly more water must be added. Cook until vegetables are done and serve.

For further variety, zucchini squash, about a pound would do, may be substituted for the beans. In this case the potatoes should be eliminated. When the squash is used, top the dish with sour cream before serving.

One note about the dill weed. Take caution and do not use dill seed. (I, for one, didn't know of the weed, but it may be purchased in jars.)

MRS. PALMER is of Greek heritage although she was born in New York. Her mother was born in Turkey, also of two Greek parents, and this gave her cooking a slightly different flavor than

Civic Club Plans 'Splashtacular'

The Anokias School grounds and swimming pool will be the setting next Sunday starting at 4 p.m. for a fun party for Civic Club members, their husbands and friends. On the agenda is swimming, games, dancing and a "Box Supper Auction."

While this is primarily a fund raising party for the club's various philanthropies it still looms as a delightful interlude before club activities start in September.

Scouting Around . . .

Scout Tells of Troop's 10th Visit to Sequoia Park

By Gary Glaser

Troop 373 went to Sequoia. This was the 10th time they have gone there. Troop 373 is led by Scoutmaster George Black and he was helped on the trip by Rev. Lindsay. The boys that came on the trip were David Caswell, Peter Lindstrom, Gary Glaser, Geoffrey Potter, Steve Potter, Peter Stine, Douglas Morris, Mike Curtis, Douglas Peterson and Butch Brett.

On Aug. 3, the troop left for Sequoia. The boys traveled 240 miles to Dorst where they camped to get used to the high altitude.

On Monday they left for Bearpaw Meadow. Half the boys took the lower trail, while the other half took the upper trail with the burros. The names of the burros were Rosy, Willie Girl, Fatsino, Baldy, Thunderblast and Baby Doll.

AFTER 11 miles of hiking, the troop got to Bearpaw Meadow, where they stayed for the night.

The next day they left for their objective, Hamilton Lake. There they stayed for three days. While they were at Hamilton Lake, the boys practiced their scouting skills such as fishing, raft building, as well as cleaning up the camp site. Of course, the boys cooked their own meals, some of which were delicious. While the troop was camped there, some of the boys went up to Kewah Gap.

A free-lance writer, who was very much impressed with a group from this troop, made a special trip up to their campsite to photograph the boys.

ON FRIDAY, the troop broke camp and left for Bearpaw, arriving there in good time. On Saturday they hiked to Crescent Meadow and Wolverton Corral.

They then rode home and stopped at Bakersfield for supper at Carnation Restaurant for a delicious meal.

All the boys in the troop want to thank George Black, Rev. Lindsay, Mel Stine and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morris, for without their wonderful help and guidance this trip would not have been the success and fun it was.

J. E. BECKSTROM, 445 W. Duarte Rd., Arcadia, has joined his father and brother, L. A. Beckstrom, senior and junior, as a full-time partner in the Arcadia Lumber Co. operation. Eric, the young Beckstrom, is a recent graduate of Stanford University where he majored in Business Administration. The Arcadia Lumber Co. is at 214 N. Santa Anita Ave., Arcadia.

Padua Art Fiesta Set For Sept. 8-15

The fifth annual Padua Hills Art Fiesta will be held from Sept. 8 through 15, it was announced yesterday by Milford Zornes, art director at Padua Institute.

Demonstrations by artists from Claremont and Padua Hills will be held from noon until 10 p.m. daily during the five days of the fiesta.

Zornes reported that exhibitions would be given by sculptors, painters in both oils and watercolors, artists in mosaic work, print making, pottery, ceramics, jewelry, enamel and various other arts and crafts.

Among the participating artists will be Betty Davenport Ford, whose sculpture work is now on display at Padua Hills Theater.

LESSON SERMON

God revealed as all-knowing "Mind" is stressed as the theme of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches Sunday. The Golden Text from Romans (11:33) declares, "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!"

If you expect to outshine your neighbors build a good reputation and keep it polished.

Lutherans Plan Fall Rites In Woman's Clubhouse

The Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., will be the meeting place of the new United Lutheran Church, it was announced yesterday by the Rev. Ray E. Hansen, pastor. Worship services and Sunday School will be held there beginning this fall.

"The Woman's Club has graciously offered us their facilities at a reasonable rental figure," he said. "We were happy to accept this offer, for we understand that this clubhouse is the starting place for several new churches of the community, is centrally located with adequate parking nearby and the newly remodeled quarters will make an excellent chapel."

Rev. Hansen said that the goal of the new church is to begin services early in October.

"We already have more than 50 people who want to join the new congregation, and more than 100 others have accepted our invitation to attend the first service," he said. "We have visited only a tenth of the homes in the area, and while services will begin before we can reach every home, we want everyone interested to feel welcome to visit our services and worship with us."

A parsonage also has been obtained for the new pastor and his wife, Marion, and three children, Dick, Carol and Christie. It is the former George Thompson residence at 3700 Mayfair in Hastings Ranch. The family expects to occupy the home by Sept. 1. An open house will be held later in the fall.

Professor to Occupy Pulpit Two Weeks

The pulpit of the Congregational Church will be occupied the next two Sundays by Dr. James Peterson, presently associate professor of Sociology and marriage counselor at the University of Southern California.

He was called to the Manhattan Beach Community Church where he remained 11 years, building the church into one of the strongest in the Congregational conference. Recently he was interim pastor at Woodland Hills, and is now a counselor on the staff of Oneonta Congregational Church of South Pasadena.

Dr. Peterson has a book off the press, "Education for Marriage," (Scribner) and another will be out in October, "The Trouble With Women." He has been on Art Linkletter's show many times.

The subject of Dr. Peterson's sermon is "The Christian Mission to Love."

If a man can't recognize an opportunity when he sees it, an education is of little benefit.

(Advertisement) LUTHERAN MISSION BELL

The Lord is good to us. In less than a month now, we already have more than 50 people who plan to join our new mission here, and more than 100 persons who are coming to our first worship service. Countless others have been invited. The Good Lord also has blessed us through the Woman's Club, whose gracious ladies have invited us to worship temporarily in their beautifully redecorated hall. The Woman's Club seems to be the starting place for new churches in this community. Our goal is to begin worship services and Sunday school there early in October—only a few weeks away! It is now certain that we will begin our services before I will be able to visit every home, so great has been the response! So if I do not reach your home before October, come anyway. You are invited. Please regard this as your personal invitation!

The Lord also has been with us in our quest for a parsonage. We have purchased the George Thompson home at 3700 Mayfair at a reasonable figure. We hope to occupy it before Sept. 1. Thanks to all those who offered help in finding a home! We plan to have open house at the parsonage later in the fall.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY—
In Psalm 41:8 King David speaks of peace of mind, but he did not have it until he learned the hard way—to repent and leave a life of sin behind. Sin makes men nervous and restless, and they wonder why. Christ teaches us a way to be free from sin: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

Yours Faithfully,
REV. RAY E. HANSEN
United Lutheran Pastor

News of the Churches

100 Expected At Swim Party

About 100 members and friends of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension, Sierra Madre, are expected to attend the swimming party and potluck supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Mecca, 2521 Louise Ave., Arcadia, at 5:30 p.m., Saturday, Aug. 24.

Assisting Mrs. Mecca in planning for the affair are Mrs. Francis Scurr, Sierra Madre, Mrs. James Reed, Arcadia, and Mrs. James Felton, Altadena. The donation of $1 per person will go toward underwriting the expenses of a bazaar to be held at the church in October.

Mrs. St. Johns Speaks Sunday In Area Church

On Aug. 25, Dr. Adela Rogers St. Johns, novelist whose new book on affirmative prayer is creating interest and discussion everywhere, will be the guest speaker Sunday at the Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 778 S. Rosemead Blvd.

For her Sunday morning lecture at 11 o'clock Mrs. St. Johns will speak on "Science Takes the Next Step."

"Affirmative Prayer In Action," the first book on spiritual subjects which Mrs. St. Johns has written, is a collection of meditations and healing treatments, and according to the author is the result of many years of experimentation in this field. Her conviction that Science itself has completed a cycle and returned to full faith in God is to be the center of her speech on this Sunday.

Dr. Ethel Barnhart, minister, will return in September.

Lamplighters Set Party August 24

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bohart, 615 Edgeview Drive, Sierra Madre, will host members of the Lamplighters of the Sierra Madre Methodist Church to a "Come Easy, Go Easy" party at their home on Aug. 24 at 7 p.m.

Assisting the Boharts in planning the menu and program will be Mr. and Mrs. Herb Bauer, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Porter and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bowman.

Professor From Fuller To Preach

Dr. Everett F. Harrison, professor of New Testament at Fuller Theological Seminary will speak this Sunday at Bethany Church. He is the last in the series of visiting speakers to preach at Bethany while Dr. Robert Schaper is away.

Dr. Harrison has taught at Fuller Seminary since 1947 when the school was founded. Before that he taught at Dallas Seminary in Texas. He prepared for his teaching career in Biblical linguistics by studying at the University of Washington and Princeton Seminary and holds doctorates from the University of Pennsylvania and Dallas Seminary. He also spent some years in missionary work in China and is the son of Norman B. Harrison, well known nationally as a Bible teacher.

Guest Pastor Sunday at Faith Lutheran Chapel

The Rev. Robert Wobrock of Fullerton will conduct the 10:30 Sunday morning service at Faith Lutheran Chapel, 835 Hastings Ranch Drive, according to Rev. A. Hesse, pastor.

The Lutheran clergyman from Fullerton graduated last June from Concordia Seminary in St. Louis. He is doing work preliminary to the organization of a new congregation in Fullerton.

At 9:15 on Sunday morning the Sunday School departments will be shown the sound film "This Vital Earth," portraying the beauty and logic of the balance of nature. Walter Schroeder, Ph.D., will be in charge of the Bible Class.

Lutherans Plan Fall Rites In Woman's Clubhouse

The Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., will be the meeting place of the new United Lutheran Church, it was announced yesterday by the Rev. Ray E. Hansen, pastor. Worship services and Sunday School will be held there beginning this fall.

"The Woman's Club has graciously offered us their facilities at a reasonable rental figure," he said. "We were happy to accept this offer, for we understand that this clubhouse is the starting place for several new churches of the community, is centrally located with adequate parking nearby and the newly remodeled quarters will make an excellent chapel."

Rev. Hansen said that the goal of the new church is to begin services early in October. "We already have more than 50 people who want to join the new congregation, and more than 100 others have accepted our invitation to attend the first service," he said. "We have visited only a tenth of the homes in the area, and while services will begin before we can reach every house, we want everyone interested to feel welcome to visit our services and worship with us."

A parsonage also has been obtained for the new pastor and his wife, Marion, and three children, Dick, Carol and Christie. It is the former George Thompson residence at 3700 Mayfair in Hastings Ranch. The family expects to occupy the home by Sept. 1. An open house will be held later in the fall.

Professor to Occupy Pulpit Two Weeks

The pulpit of the Congregational Church will be occupied the next two Sundays by Dr. James Peterson, presently associate professor of Sociology and marriage counselor at the University of Southern California. He was called to the Manhattan Beach Community Church where he remained 11 years, building the church into one of the strongest in the Congregational conference. Recently he was interim pastor at Woodland Hills, and is now a counselor on the staff of Oneonta Congregational Church of South Pasadena.

Dr. Peterson has a book off the press, "Education for Marriage" (Scribner) and another will be out in October, "The Trouble With Women." He has been on Art Linkletter's show many times.

The subject of Dr. Peterson's sermon is "The Christian Mission to Love." If a man can't recognize an opportunity when he sees it, an education is of little benefit.

(Advertisement) LUTHERAN MISSION BELL

The Lord is good to us. In less than a month now, we already have more than 50 people who plan to join our new mission here, and more than 100 persons who are coming to our first worship service. Countless others have been invited. The Good Lord also has blessed us through the Woman's Club, whose gracious ladies have invited us to worship temporarily in their beautifully redecorated hall. The Woman's Club seems to be the starting place for new churches in this community. Our goal is to begin worship services and Sunday school there early in October—only a few weeks away! It is now certain that we will begin our services before I will be able to visit every home, so great has been the response! So if I do not reach your home before October, come anyway. You are invited. Please regard this as your personal invitation!

The Lord also has been with us in our quest for a parsonage. We have purchased the George Thompson home at 3700 Mayfair at a reasonable figure. We hope to occupy it before Sept. 1. Thanks to all those who offered help in finding a home! We plan to have open house at the parsonage later in the fall.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY—In Psalm 41:1-8 King David speaks of peace of mind, but he did not have it until he learned the hard way—to repent and leave a life of sin behind. Sin makes men nervous and restless, and they wonder why. Christ teaches us a way to be free from sin: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

Yours Faithfully,
REV. RAY E. HANSEN
United Lutheran Pastor

News of the Churches

100 Expected At Swim Party

About 100 members and friends of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension, Sierra Madre, are expected to attend the swimming party and potluck supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Mecca, 2521 Louise Ave., Arcadia, at 5:30 p.m., Saturday, Aug. 24.

Assisting Mrs. Mecca in planning for the affair are Mrs. Francis Scurr, Sierra Madre, Mrs. James Reed, Arcadia, and Mrs. James Felton, Altadena. The donation of $1 per person will go toward underwriting the expenses of a bazaar to be held at the church in October.

Mrs. St. Johns Speaks Sunday In Area Church

On Aug. 25, Dr. Adela Rogers St. Johns, novelist whose new book on affirmative prayer is creating interest and discussion everywhere, will be the guest speaker Sunday at the Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 778 S. Rosemead Blvd.

For her Sunday morning lecture at 11 o'clock Mrs. St. Johns will speak on "Science Takes the Next Step." "Affirmative Prayer in Action," the first book on spiritual subjects which Mrs. St. Johns has written, is a collection of meditations and healing treatments, and according to the author is the result of many years of experimentation in this field. Her conviction that Science itself has completed a circle and returned to full faith in God is to be the center of her speech on this Sunday. Dr. Ethel Barnhart, minister, will return in September.

Lamplighters Set Party August 24

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bohart, 615 Edgeview Drive, Sierra Madre, will host members of the Lamplighters of the Sierra Madre Methodist Church to a "Come Easy, Go Easy" party at their home on Aug. 24 at 7 p.m. Assisting the Boharts in planning the menu and program will be Mr. and Mrs. Herb Bauer, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Porter and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bowman.

Professor From Fuller To Preach

Dr. Everett F. Harrison, professor of New Testament at Fuller Theological Seminary will speak this Sunday at Bethany Church. He is the last in the series of visiting speakers to preach at Bethany while Dr. Robert Schaper is away. Dr. Harrison has taught at Fuller Seminary since 1947 when the school was founded. Before that he taught at Dallas Seminary in Texas. He prepared for his teaching career in Biblical linguistics by studying at the University of Washington and Princeton Seminary and holds doctorates from the University of Pennsylvania and Dallas Seminary. He also spent some years in missionary work in China and is the son of Norman B. Harrison, well known nationally as a Bible teacher.

Bethany church will hold a monthly leadership training workshop which will feature outstanding Christian educators of the area. The first in this series of workshops, Aug. 27, will feature Miss Esther Ellinghusen, associated with Gospel Light Press in Glendale. Her topic will be "The cost of leadership." Invited to the workshop are all Sunday School teachers, youth group sponsors, and adult department executives.

The Voyagers Club of Bethany Church will have a "sing" this Sunday night at the home of Ray and Sue Ellison, 2061 Vista, Arcadia. The Voyagers, a group of young married people, friends and members of Bethany, have a monthly fellowship dinner on the third Friday of each month, as well as frequent sings in local homes. They also meet each Sunday morning for a Bible study class under the direction of Dr. Schaper. Anyone interested in joining the group may call the church office, EL 5-1409, or Joan Cress, sing chairman, EL 5-6424.

THE AMBASSADORS, college age and young adult group at Bethany, will hold a swimming party at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Shuler, 11 Woodland Lane, Arcadia, Aug. 30.

Guest Pastor Sunday at Faith Lutheran Chapel

The Rev. Robert Wobrock of Fullerton will conduct the 10:30 Sunday morning service at Faith Lutheran Chapel, 835 Hastings Ranch Drive, according to Rev. A. Hesse, pastor.

The Lutheran clergyman from Fullerton graduated last June from Concordia Seminary in St. Louis. He is doing work preliminary to the organization of a new congregation in Fullerton.

At 9:15 on Sunday morning the Sunday School departments will be shown the sound film "This Vital Earth," portraying the beauty and logic of the balance of nature. Walter Schroeder, Ph.D., will be in charge of the Bible Class.

Outline New Driving Laws

between the ages of 14 and 16, but not to urban residents.
The theory was, that lack of adequate transportation facilities in farm districts made it advisable to extend driving privileges to some qualified 14 and 15-year-olds residing in those districts.

THE NEW law makes no distinction between rural and urban residents, but sets up a program of issuing
"junior permits" to any qualified person between 14 and 16 years of age, and abolishes the "junior operator's license." In no case may a "junior permit" be issued to a person 16 years old or over.

Instruction permits will continue to be issued to persons of any age over 14 years, with the new limitation that instruction permit applicants must be qualified for a license in the first place.

This means that applicants of any qualified age must pass the DMV law and vision tests before being issued an instruction permit.

VILLA
VIEWSBy Toni Maurin
SY. 7-9634

It always tickles me this time of year to hear the different reactions of people as summer passes its second month. Parents are making a valiant effort to be patient with their bored children. Ambition to do anything is on the wane. Most people have taken their summer trips and no longer have any big push to look forward to. The barbecue dinners have begun to wear thin, and there is just so much potato salad you can eat before it is tiresome.

A good old-fashioned stew sounds pretty good, but who wants stew when the weather is so warm. Even the youngsters are beginning to mention school with a wee bit of enthusiasm. Cheer up, all, school starts in just about 19 more days and two hours!

MR. AND MRS. H. C. (Pat) Tumilty, 1405 Sierra Madre Villa, are still in the throes of furnishing and trying to get everything in order for houseguests arriving this weekend. They are expecting Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Roberts from Hillsborough, near San Mateo, to be with them for a few days.

THE GEORGE Holmes, 1550 Old House Road, returned from a delightful week at Crescent Cove in Laguna. They had an apartment overlooking the water and got to see a lot of their local friends.

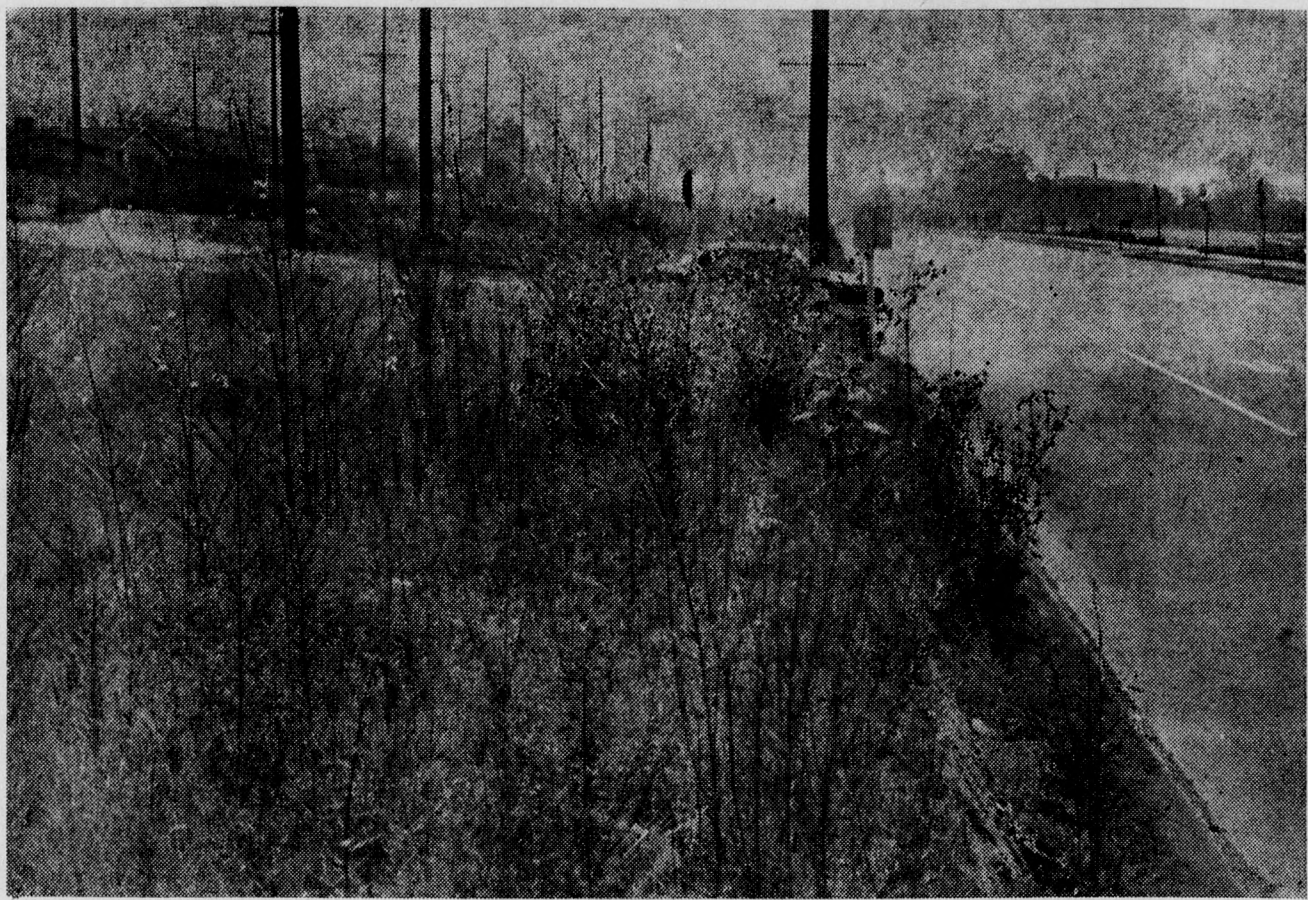

THE JOHN FRICKE family, 3366 Barhite, returned last week from a two-and-a-half week vacation at Catalina Island. The children entertained several of their hill friends for four days while they were there. Betty had as her guest, Gail Gardner, Ann had Carol Ogren, Dana had Linda Wilfong, and Michael had Robbie Wilfong. They also spent a little time with the Art Brearleys who are again enjoying the fun of Cherry Cove.

Upon their return, Michael acted as host to several little friends to celebrate his fourth birthday last Saturday. A circus motif was used for the party and the guests were entertained with horseback riding. Among guests were Roger Philip, Debbie Maurin, Shauna Pleas, Robbie Wilfong and Charlie Goldsworthy.

MR. AND MRS. Howard K. Forsberg, 1535 Sierra Madre Villa, entertained at a dinner party last Saturday night. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Heup, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cocking and Mr. and Mrs. Art Voss.

MR. AND MRS. F. Wayne Furstenberger, 3126 Meyer Lo Lane, returned last Friday from a two-week combined business and pleasure trip up north. They visited Portland, Seattle and spent three days in San Francisco en route home. While they were in Seattle they watched the Gold cup races, and were joined at the races by Mr. Dan Marvosh and his daughter, Diane. The senior Furstenbergers stayed at their home while they were away.

MR. AND MRS. Charles Goldsworthy, 3515 Fairpoint, had a family swimming and dinner party last Sunday honoring Mr. Goldsworthy's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grattan, who are visiting them from Atlanta, Ga. Among guests were Mrs. J. B. Bush and family, Mrs. Helena Goldsworthy, Miss Carolyn Jordan, Mrs. Margaret Jordan and Mr. and Mrs. James Grattan and family.

SPEAKING OF EYESORES, here's a dangerous one at Hastings Ranch Dr. and Sierra Madre Blvd. The weeds in the parkway, in addition to their unsightliness, obscure the visibility of cars nosing into the eastbound lane, as the photo illustrates. The entire parkway through Hastings Ranch is weed-infested.

A. L. Pruitts
Entertain
At Barbecue

Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus L. Pruitt, 3810 Cartright, entertained last Saturday night at a barbecue.

Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon K. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford R. Voges, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Judd, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Spalding and Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Thomas.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Warren B. Melone, Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Kaponya, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Gittinger, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Schluter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald O. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. William Murphy.

Mrs. Arthur
Returns
From Trip

Mabel J. Arthur, former Los Angeles resident now making her home at 1206 Cynthia, recently returned from a trip in the interest of the Hotel Greeters of America of which she is a national chairman.

Her first stop was at the Pioneer Hotel, Victorville, where she met with greeters from the San Bernardino area. This session was presided over by the group's president, Paul Stevens.

San Diego was visited next. Mrs. Arthur was the honored guest at a dinner arranged by Floss Clare, secretary of the local group. Also in attendance at the affair were 20 greeters from Los Angeles and 12 from Long Beach.

Highlight of the occasion was the attendance, by all the guests, at the fiesta, "del Pacifico Pageant and Parade," which was celebrated through the middle of this month.

Mrs. Arthur and her daughter, Mrs. Edith Carter, also of the Cynthia address, were guests at the New Plaza Hotel. One day was spent visiting the Kona Kai Club where Hal Sirkowich, prominent greeter, is manager.

Long Beach honored Mrs. Arthur at a picnic and last Sunday the Los Angeles group met at Fern Dell for an outdoor breakfast.

The object of this group, headed by Mrs. Arthur, is to promote travel in America and enhance the hotel industry by urging residents to see our country first and patronize hotels.

John R. Bakers Welcome David
Mr. and Mrs. John R. Baker, 3735 Landfair, and their 6-year-old son, Johnny, have adopted a baby, David Paul. The newest member of the Baker household was born July 4 and arrived in the Ranch when he was two days old. His two grandmothers are Mrs. F. O. Brown of Arcadia and Mrs. Alvah Dougan of Altadena.

It surely is great to be back writing this column again. I want to thank Judy for taking it over for me.

I have spent what I call a wonderful vacation at Meeks Bay, Lake Tahoe, which is more commonly known as Kids Paradise. An average day consists of lying on the beach, water skiing, swimming, if you're brave or forced, eating well unbalanced lunches and, during the evening, going to the dance or show, both of which are held every night.

The dances are really great. George, who is in charge of them, enjoys playing all the latest records.

THAT IS an average day, but not all days follow the routine. Like the day of the ski meet at Chambers Lodge, Marty, my brother, and Gary Manfull of Burbank were the only ones entered from Meeks. Well, they didn't win but they were the most popular. Seven boats, 25 or 30 people, tied together with two anchors, cheered them on.

Then there was the ski meet at Meeks which was sponsored by Meeks Bay and the Ski Bum water club jointly. It was the friendliest competition I have ever known. All the contestants were friends. They practiced together, set up the course together and cheered for each other.

ANOTHER thing that is great is the way everyone shares everything, from food to boats. The Mama's Mink was in dry dock for repairs for a week but that sure didn't stop our skiing activities. Everyone offered to pull us or if we knew them well we told them they would pull us, and they did.

The people at Meeks Bay, young, old and teenagers, are really great. We have been going there for four years and there isn't a place I would rather go. It is the people that make it that way.

There are two special people that make vacation for me possible and wonderful, my mom and dad.

Although the temperature was up in the 90s the group of local teenagers who wash cars last Saturday for funds for the City of Hope leukemia research kept it up and did a fine job. The car wash was made possible by the Associated Gas Station at Michillinda and Valley View and the Texaco Station at Rosemead and Colorado. Congratulations on a swell job, kids.

THESE PAST few weeks everyone is trying to live it up because there isn't much more vacation time left. Last Thursday Ronnie Abernathy and Dick White had a lot of fun playing miniature golf. Just a couple of pros in the making.

SUE OSTRANDER is spending three weeks at Mammoth Lake enjoying the usual vacation fun.

SURFSIDE! That's where Carole and Diane Rees, a couple of Marshallites, spent their vacation. The girls stayed there for two glorious weeks. For the second week brother Paul and yours truly were invited down. We had lots of fun getting a tan on the beach, jumping around and swimming in the surf, playing volleyball and making many new friends. We met Judy Mortensen down there. Judy said she was enjoying it, too. She was baby sitting and having fun on the beach.

CHURCH CAMP! Sue Ostrander and Karen Barnes went to the Presbyterian Church Camp at Big Bear recently. When they returned they went to Choir Church camp. The girls report they had a wonderful time.

JUDY MORTENSEN has been at Laguna Beach with her family, and I know they must have had a wonderful time.

FAIRFIELD VISITOR
Pat Zirkle of Fairfield, Calif., spent last week in the Ranch visiting his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. McKnight, 3715 Cartwright, and their children, Robbie and Cathie.

Ruby Ball at Huntington

Moonlight dancing beside the pool at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel will be a high spot in the summer social season of members of Southern California Council of Alpha Omicron Pi and their escorts at their annual Ruby Ball tomorrow night.

Cocktails are to be served at 7:30 p.m. and dinner at 8:30. Music for dancing will be provided by Tito and his orchestra.

Hostesses for the evening are members of Glendale Alumnae Chapter of the sorority and Mrs. Perry G. Hadley is chairman.

Special tribute will be paid to Mrs. Marshall J. Vatcher, council president, who was elected national treasurer at the international convention of Alpha Omicron Pi in Chicago in June.

Mrs. Frank B. Wheeler and Mrs. John Powell are reservations chairmen for Pasadena. Expecting to attend from this area are Mr. and Mrs. William R. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hurter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Allen D. Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Rudyard Stickney and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Green.

Pack 383
Schedules
Meeting

Thirty fathers and cub scout sons from Pack 383 attended a recent baseball game at Wrigley Field.

The "Angels" and "Stars" played a nip and tuck tight game that went into extra innings to the particular delight of all the cubs.

"Hot dogs, peanuts, popcorn and cokes," says Cubmaster Marvey Brown, "added extra zest and fun to an altogether great afternoon at the ball park."

Pack 383 has scheduled its first den meetings for Tuesday, Sept. 17, and its first pack meeting for Friday evening, Sept. 20.

Registration is now open for new cubs, ages from 8 to 11 years. For additional information and registration blanks please call den mother chairman, Mrs. Yolanda Schneider, at ELgin 5-3164, or Cubmaster Vic Harris, at ELgin 5-3622.

Las Jardineras
Swim Tuesday

Tuesday noon will find members of Las Jardineras gathered for lunch and a swim at the Joseph Cummins home, 605 Rim.

The party is one of a series held by the club during the summer months.

Toastmasters Attend
Meeting

Sierra Madre Toastmasters Club came up with another "off-beat" program at its regular meeting at the Rancho Hillcrest.

During the extemporaneous table topics discussion, John DuBois, posed as Professor Josh DaBash—"the famous Viennese psychoanalyst"—and proceeded to analyze the members.

Rorschach tests, or "ink blots," which are used in psychiatric treatments, were placed before each toastmaster. In two minutes the members were required to explain the abstract ink blot, freely expressing all thoughts. The Professor then analyzed the comment.

Mr. DuBois, alias Prof. DaBash, found the group to be mentally ill. He stated that "we are fast becoming a society of sedate bourgeoisie where we make every possible effort to transform the fundamental biological urge into a mild, polite, 'civilized' force."

"Let's put the libido back into suburbia!" was the Professor's plea. The club concluded, however, that this psychoanalyst was just plain psycho.

The club voted Henry Nash as winner of this table topics. In lieu of an ink blot, however, he was given for his subject a rather famous photograph of Marilyn Monroe. Mr. Nash won hands down.

Club President Robert Milo was toastmaster of the evening. Speakers were Winfield Hartnaff, Ed Cutler, Robert Chisler, Robert Truog, Robert Chisler, Robert Truog, Robert Chisler and John Logsdon. Mr. Hartnaff was voted best speaker.

The next meeting of Sierra Madre Toastmasters will be an outdoor barbecue affair at the home of Edward Mayo, 16 E. Ontario, Arcadia.

Sept. 16
Is S-Day

Sept. 16 is S-Day! Synchronize your calendars. Get the alarm clocks in working condition. Have the children wear shoes an hour a week as rehearsal.

In other words, Pasadena schools will be open for nine months of shoes and schedules Sept. 16. That's the word, whether you consider it good or bad.

REPUBLICAN CLUB

The Poothill Young Republicans Club held a swimming party at Wagner's Pool in lieu of its formal monthly meeting. Twenty-five members and guests attended the affair. After the swim, a barbecue was served.

READY FOR ACTION—A familiar sight along Southern California highways as fall approaches are these huge pumpkin announcements calling attention to the annual Los Angeles County Fair in Pomona, Sept. 13-20. On hand to speed them on their way are five of the charming candidates for queen of the big exposition. Standing are Micki Sapp, San Dimas; Juanita Blum, Alhambra, and Betsy Hanby, Covina. Seated are Sharon Goebel, West Covina, and Fay William, San Gabriel.

Cystic Fibrosis
Guild Members
At Party

Members of Hastings Ranch Guild of Cystic Fibrosis and their husbands met at the C. Don Hays home, 1260 Coronet, for their annual swim and box lunch party.

Mrs. Charles D. Eldson, general chairman for the event, was assisted by Mrs. Charles R. Hardison Jr., Mrs. Victor E. Harris and Mrs. H. Harvey Hunt.

Highlight of the occasion was the showing of Rose Marie Reid swim suits. Models for the event were Mrs. Ralph A. Judd, Mrs. William R. Bevan, Mrs. Hardison, Mrs. Ralph A. Johnson, Mrs. Robert D. Meason, Mrs. Hays and Mrs. Eldson.

Facts on Cancer
Available at Society Office

Is cancer incurable? What are the symptoms of cancer? What is the statistical relationship of lung cancer to cigarettes? What are the scientifically accepted methods of treating cancer?

These, and many similar, questions, are answered in pamphlets published by the American Cancer Society, and available to the public, free of charge, at the Society's district information center, 180 S. Euclid, Pasadena, Mrs. William R. Ruess Jr., ACS area education chairman, announced yesterday.

Mrs. Ruess urged residents of Sierra Madre to call for the center, SYcamore 3-2494, for further information about educational materials available.

Many Fish in the Sea,
But Few Caught—Truism

By Charles Ayres

Ever since man was created, his relationship to the fish has been recorded. Admittedly not all relationship was sporting (like Jonah and the whale, for example) and in the days before the Texas steer a guy had to do a certain amount of fishing for eating.

Since seven-eighths of the world's surface is water, it would seem to follow that fish exist in abundant quantities. There is presently a strong current of opinion (to which I claim membership), however, that Southern California has been somewhat slighted in the master distribution.

If this is not so, then (1) the fish have grown smarter than man, (2) they discovered an adequate food supply of their own, (3) or the constant presence of so many humans scares them out of their appetite.

OF SOUTHERN California's multimillion population, there must be at least one million, egged on by sporting goods manufacturers or shorter working hours,

Committee Named to Seek Pasadena School Chief

A five-man screening committee, composed of two businessmen and three outstanding educators, has been given the task of finding a new school superintendent for Pasadena.

The committee, selected by C. C. Trillingham, County School Superintendent, and approved by the Pasadena Board of Education, includes the following:

Hollis P. Allen, professor of education at Claremont Graduate School and a member of the Task Force on Education of the Hoover Commission.

William C. Berwick, manager of the downtown Los Angeles Broadway Department Store.

Osman R. Hull, professor of education at the University of Southern California and a past president of Los Angeles Kiwanis Club.

Edgar Morphet, a professor of education at the University of California, at Berkeley, and a school finance specialist.

Ranch Guild
Plans Meeting
For Today

Hastings Ranch Section of the Pasadena Chapter of Needlework Guild of America meets today in the home of Mrs. Paul G. Kaponya, 1205 Pine Bluff. The members will arrive at 10 a.m. for a work period and luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock noon.

Co-hostesses for today's meeting are Mrs. Neil J. Fallon and Mrs. Carl A. Burt.

The group is under the direction of Mrs. Alpheus L. Pruitt, who is assisted by Mrs. Paul E. Adams and Mrs. William E. Heller.

The committee is expected to meet with the Board to find the qualifications Pasadena desires in its superintendent, then receive applications and sift them, turning over to the Board names of six or seven they feel are best qualified.

The Board then can interview these men and make a choice.

PCC Forum
Has Imposing
Speaker List

Dr. Charles F. Richter, professor of Seismology at the California Institute of Technology and international authority on earthquakes, heads the last of 20 speakers which the Board of Education has approved for the Pasadena City College Tuesday Evening Forum for the 1957-58 season.

Using the topic, "California Earthquakes," Mr. Richter will open the Forum series on Tuesday, Oct. 8, at 8 p.m. at Sesson Auditorium.

Other speakers scheduled are: Oct. 15, Dr. Harold von Hofe, "Trends Toward a United Europe;" Oct. 22, Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, "Religion in Russia, and Her Satellites;" Oct. 29, Dr. Alonzo Baker, "Is American Foreign Policy Good Enough?" Nov. 5, Sen. Richard L. Neuberger, "Natural Resources and the American Economy;" Nov. 12, Dr. Will Durant, "The Psychological Differences Between Men and Women."

Nov. 19, Walter T. Ridder, "The Washington Scene;" Nov. 26, Elvira T. Marquis, "Your Tax Dollar Abroad;" Jan. 7, Carl H. Thomsen, "Can Democracy Survive in Italy?;" Jan. 14, Douglas M. Kelley, M.D., "Fads, Frauds and Fools;" Jan. 21, Dr. Philip M. Cummings, "United States Commitments in the Pacific;" Jan. 28, Dr. Thomas Lantos, "Russia's Stake in the Middle East;" Feb. 4, John Nicholls Booth, "The Africa Story;" Feb. 11, Dr. Harry D. Gideonse, "Economic Policy of the U.S.;" Feb. 18, Dr. Fred Warner Neal, "Dilemmas of American Foreign Policy;" Feb. 25, Julian Bryan, "The New Japan;" March 4, Dr. Ashley Montagu, "Myths, Monkeys and Men;" March 11, Raphael Green, "Russia and Its People;" March 18, Albert Stuart Otto, "Why Do We Have Speakers, Anyway?;" March 25, Dr. Claude A. Buss, "The United States and Russia View the Far East."

Persons interested in attending the Forum may register in Room 142, Administration Building, at Pasadena City College or telephone for reservations, SYcamore 3-5111 Ext. 26. A tuition fee of $2 for the entire season entitles the registrant to a reserved seat.

Improved parking facilities and an outstanding program point to even greater attendance at Forum meetings this coming season than in the past. Speakers have been selected with the help of the Citizens Advisory Committee. The members of the committee are Mrs. Stanley Kyle, chairman; Dr. Victor M. Trask, Judge Joseph A. Sprinkle Jr., Dr. Richard F. Webb, Lee Merriam and Mrs. William Hansen. Reserved seats are available.

THE SERIOUS fisherman takes to the sea in the early pre-dawn hours so as to be in the most logical fishing spot when the fish wake up and start looking for breakfast.

If he has been lucky enough to get what they have a taste for that day for bait, he may be the one the photographers race for when he wearily but happily drags his catch ashore to the envious gasps of the less fortunate.

Weeks later after the last morsel has been consumed the catch it still our friend's chief topic of conversation, only now it has grown so in size that it is second only to Moby Dick.

Asiatic Flu Vaccine Marked for Special Cases

By Roy O. Gilbert, M.D., L.A. County Health Officer

The intercontinental paths of epidemics can apparently be traced in much the same fashion as the progress of tornados and hurricanes. This became strikingly evident during the last couple of weeks when officials of the U.S. Public Health Service predicted that the flu epidemic, currently sweeping throughout Asia and the Southwest Pacific, will hit the United States with the onset of cooler weather. Indeed, scattered cases have already been reported in most sections of the United States.

Not much practical use can be made of this information, however. There are no medical storm cellars, so to speak, into which people of this country can retreat. Despite the fact that science can now prepare a vaccine that would immunize people against the new virus strain that is causing the present outbreak of influenza and against which the population has no immunity, this preventive cannot be manufactured in sufficient quantity in time to protect more than a minor segment of the population.

It was stated that about 8,000,000 doses of vaccine will be ready by early fall, but it is reported that most of these are to be reserved for servicemen and their families living in foreign countries, individuals engaged in caring for the sick, workers in several essential industries, and for those individuals who contact travelers as they return to this country for visits overseas.

However, even if plenty of vaccine were produced soon enough, its administration before the epidemic gets well under way would be next to impossible. The polio program has demonstrated how long a time is required to vaccinate millions of people. The epidemic will have come and gone long before the job of vaccination on so large a scale could be completed.

So, although medical science can predict the probable time of occurrence of the flu epidemic in this country and has developed an effective vaccine against it, the fact remains that if the U.S. Public Health Service officials are correct, millions of Americans will have the flu within the next few months.

FORTUNATELY, unlike the flu epidemic of 1917-1918, the present form of the disease is reported to be generally mild. The acute stage of illness, during which the victim suffers from generalized aching, headache, fever, chills, sore throat and prostration, lasts no more than three or four days, and is followed by several days of lethargy and weakness.

By all accounts, the mortality rate in the present influenza epidemic is low. Those deaths that do occur are among individuals who are already weakened from some other disease or by advanced age. This type of influenza is also serious when it occurs in young infants.

Every five to 10 years, according to medical experts in the field of disease forecasting, the influenza virus changes its character. It did so in the epidemics of 1918, 1929, probably 1935, and in 1946-1947.

CERTAINLY the virus that is causing the present epidemic is different from any influenza virus strain heretofore known to exist, and is, luckily for everyone, totally different in character from the virus that caused the deaths of at least half a million people in America from September 1918 to March 1919.

Prevention of the spread of this disease by quarantine methods is an impossibility. But, since the illness produced by the 1957 influenza virus is usually so mild, chances are that the population of this country will weather the epidemic with very little damage to report.

However, in all cases where influenza is suspected, medical advice should be obtained. Although the disease may be generally mild in nature, its possible complications may quickly transform it into a more serious illness.

Garden Notes . . .

Yellow Oleander Thrives In Arid Desert Regions

Hot weather gardeners should have little trouble selecting shrubs especially suited to their individual climates. For many shrubs do well in all of the warm climates of California and some are especially suited to the desert, the central valley or the humid coast.

A Yellow Oleander (thevetia peruviana), an attractive, bushy shrub, growing only to six feet, is quite successful in most hot areas. However, because it can endure the hottest summer sun but very little frost, it is an ideal choice for the arid desert regions around Palm Springs and Brawley.

Its long, slender leaves and colorful, clustered blossoms make it a distinctive specimen plant. Local nurseries have red, pink, salmon, white and yellow varieties.

GARDENERS who plant the Pineapple Guava (feijoa sellowiana) get an extra bonus in lush, edible fruit. Coastal shrubs bear richer, tangier fruit than those in inland gardens, although the shrub thrives just as well.

The greivish plant is a sun-loving subtropical evergreen, bearing exotic white and purple flowers. Unpruned, the shrub grows to 18 feet, but annual pruning can keep it a bushy eight feet. It is hardy to temperatures as low as 15 degrees.

Another warm weather shrub is the Japanese Viburnum (viburnum japonicum).

FOTOS ARE FUN

Winning Combination

Although summer is growing short, there's still time to enjoy outdoor picnics and active fun-in-the-sun days.

Summer fun can last all year long when you make color slides of the things you do. The kids building sand castles or Dad as "chief chef" at the fireplace are fun to shoot and thrilling to show later on.

Next time you're off for the day, why not make a story in color slides—from the time you leave the house right through to the evening sunset (or later if you have flash).

We have a wonderful combination for color slide "showing" and "showing" thrills. For "showing" it's the famous Kodak Pony 135 Camera—a fine "miniature" that takes gorgeous color slides, yet has all the controls for serious picture taking.

For "showing" it's the new Kodak 300 Projector—a slim, compact projector that shows slides big, bright and beautiful even in a small room. Price for the outfit? Just $100.00.

Special note: Outfits like this make unusual and appreciated wedding gifts, too. Stop in and see them soon. No foolin'.

County Fair Heads List Of Area's September Events

The "biggest and most beautiful county fair in America" heads a list of colorful events in the Southland during September, according to the calendar issued by the All-Year Club today. There will be a 44-mile water ski derby, gold mining celebration, and the beautiful San Gabriel Fiesta.

The Los Angeles County Fair, held Sept. 13-29 for its 30th year, comes accurately by its "biggest-beautiful" title. Only one state fair is bigger and none has such a beautifully landscaped site as the 450-acre fairgrounds at Pomona.

About 40 skiers behind fast motorboats will race from Long Beach to circle a buoy at Avalon Bay, and return, on Sept. 22. Boats line the route.

RANDSBURG, the still-living gold mining town in Kern County, holds its Old Time Mining Celebration Sept. 14-15 with a Hermit's convention, gold panning and rock drilling contests and tours of mines.

The 186th birthday of the old mission will be commemorated by the San Gabriel Fiesta, Sept. 6-8. The Grand Fiesta Parade Saturday afternoon is one of the most colorful in the country.

Santa Monica holds its Bay Beach festival Sept. 1-2 with paddleboard races, an ocean swimming race and a kiddie costume parade.

Highlighted by the "Rural Olympics," the Antelope Valley Fair and Alfalfa Festival will be held Sept. 5-8 at Lancaster. Women as well as men will race tractors around a track lined by hay bales. The All States Society combined picnic for all states will be held at Bixby Park, Long Beach, Sept. 8.

BARSTOW holds its Rough Riders Stampede Sept. 21-22 with a big Western horse parade, gymkana and rodeo in which businessmen team with experts in the calf roping event.

The annual Granada Hills Fall Roundup, with horse and circus acts and a whis-kerino contest, will be held at Devonshire Downs in the San Fernando Valley Sept. 22.

Under a full moon, Chula Vista holds its Fiesta de La Luna Sept. 25-29 with parades and cake baking contests.

WANT THE WORLD

A great many people expect so much that it's impossible for them to experience a pleasant surprise.

CROWDED FIELD

A man would probably have a chance of getting by without working if competition wasn't so keen.
